

Claim No. 208.
Under article 4. Treaty of 14th. June 1866, with Creek Indians

The undersigned, Roley Scott, aged 35, a loyal Creek Indian, understanding and speaking the English language, being duly sworn and examined, deposes and says: In the month of September 1863, was living at his home in North Fork Town, Creek Nation, that the Rebels under General Cooper and Col<sup>o</sup> McIntosh appeared in large numbers in his neighborhood, (having come up there from the Honey Springs,) and drove him away therefrom, on account of his Union sentiments, and sought to kill him: that he fled away, hastily, in the night time, and went to the Refugee Camp at Gibson, where he remained until the close of the war, and returned to the Creek Nation - Deponent further says: at the time he so fled his home, he owned and possessed, and necessarily abandoned and lost all the property herein after named, and never thereafter recouped the same, or any part thereof: To say:
